

2021 Kansas Statutes

58-4103. Certification or licensure, when required; temporary certification or licensure; penalty for violations; exemptions. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), no person, other than a state certified or licensed appraiser, shall:

- (1) Engage in any written appraisal in connection with a real estate-related financial transaction;
- (2) assume or use the title of state certified or licensed appraiser or any title, designation or abbreviation likely to create the impression of certification or licensure as a real estate appraiser by this state; or
- (3) advertise or otherwise represent in any manner that such person is a state certified or licensed appraiser.

(b) The board shall recognize on a temporary basis the certification or license of an appraiser issued by another state if:

- (1) The property to be appraised is part of a real estate-related financial transaction;
- (2) the appraiser's business in this state is of a temporary nature; and
- (3) the appraiser registers with the board, as prescribed by the board.

(c) Violation of subsection (a) is a class A nonperson misdemeanor.

(d) An individual who is not a state certified or licensed appraiser may assist in the preparation of an appraisal if: (1) The assistant is under the direct supervision of an individual who is a state licensed or certified appraiser; and (2) the final appraisal document is approved and signed by an individual who is a state certified or licensed appraiser.

(e) (1) The provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) shall not be applicable to financial institutions engaging in real estate-related financial transactions and otherwise subject to K.S.A. 58-4101 et seq., and amendments thereto, when the following conditions are met:

(A) An employee of the financial institution conducts an appraisal as defined in subsection (a) of K.S.A. 58-4102, and amendments thereto, or conducts an evaluation in accordance with state and federal banking regulations; and

(B) when the loan that is the subject of such appraisal is not intended to be sold in the secondary market and is intended to be held by the financial institution for the life of the loan.

(2) If the financial institution disposes of the loan granted under paragraph (1)(B) of this subsection in the secondary market, such financial institution shall be required to obtain an appraisal by a state licensed or certified appraiser as required by paragraph (1) of subsection (a). The employee of the financial institution that conducted the prior appraisal shall not be considered to be an appraiser under the law unless such person is a state certified or licensed appraiser.

(f) The provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) shall not preclude an individual licensed as a real estate broker or salesperson pursuant to K.S.A. 58-3034 et seq., and amendments thereto, from performing and providing a comparative market analysis or broker's price opinion to a customer, client or third party for compensation in the ordinary course of business. In no event shall such comparative market analysis or broker's price opinion be referred to as an appraisal nor shall such individual represent such individual's self as a certified or licensed appraiser under this act unless such person is a state certified or licensed appraiser.

(g) The provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) shall not preclude an individual licensed as a certified public accountant pursuant to K.S.A. 1-301 et seq., and amendments thereto, from performing and providing services as a certified public accountant or as otherwise allowed by law. In no event shall any report by a certified public accountant be referred to as an appraisal nor shall such certified public accountant represent such individual's self as a state certified or licensed appraiser unless such certified public accountant is a state certified or licensed appraiser.

(h) The provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) shall not preclude an individual licensed as an attorney pursuant to K.S.A. 7-103 et seq., and amendments thereto, from performing and providing services as an attorney or as otherwise allowed by law. In no event shall any report by an attorney be referred to as an appraisal nor shall such attorney represent such individual's self as a state certified or licensed appraiser unless such attorney is a state certified or licensed appraiser.

(i) The provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) shall not be applicable to employees of the Kansas department of transportation performing appraisals for the department for the purpose of real property acquisition or disposal of real property by the department. In no event shall such employee performing such appraisal represent such individual's self as a state certified or licensed appraiser unless such employee is a state certified or licensed appraiser.

(j) The provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) shall not preclude an individual licensed as an insurance agent pursuant to K.S.A. 40-4901 et seq., and amendments thereto, or an individual retained by an insurance company, while acting within the scope of the Kansas insurance code, from performing and providing services as an insurance agent or an individual retained by an insurance company as otherwise allowed by law. In no event shall any report by an insurance agent or an individual retained by an insurance company be referred to as an appraisal nor shall such insurance agent or an individual retained by an insurance company represent such individual's self as a state certified or licensed appraiser unless such employee is a state certified or licensed appraiser.
