

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-3778. Same; governor to resolve conflicts; transfer of property and records. (a) When any conflict arises as to the disposition of any power, duty or function or the unexpended balance of any appropriation as a result of any abolishment or transfer made by this act, or under authority of this act, such conflict shall be resolved by the governor, and the decision of the governor shall be final.

(b) The secretary of administration shall succeed to all property and records which were used for, or pertain to, the performance of the powers, duties and functions transferred to the secretary of administration under the provisions of this act. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of such property or records arising under this section, and resulting from the transfer of the powers, duties and functions of the director of architectural services or the division of architectural services to the secretary of administration as provided in this act, shall be determined by the governor, whose decision shall be final.
