

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 13, 2013, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Reps. Henderson, Montgomery and Peterson were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord,
In the world of relativity that we live in,
we often hear that there is no absolute truth.
Today, as I come before you I declare there is an absolute truth, and that is that You love each one of us unconditionally and earnestly desire that we seek You and Your will.
So today as we go about our business,
help us to bask in the truth of Your unconditional love for us, and eagerly desire to seek You and Your will
for the business at hand.
We continue to lift up Sergeant-at-Arms, Wayne Owen to You.
May Your presence fill his hospital room today.
Please give wisdom, knowledge and direction to the medical personnel. And we ask that it be Your will to bring healing to his body.
I pray this in the Name of Christ, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Whipple.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Phillips and Carlin are spread upon the journal:

Remarks by Rep. Phillips:

Joining me today are Dr. April Mason, K-State Provost and Dr. Jim Bloodgood, K-State Faculty Senate President

I come before the House this morning to commemorate the 150-year founding of Kansas State University.

In 1855, a small group of men from the New England states settled at the confluence of the Kansas River and Big Blue River, which eventually became the community of Manhattan.

By 1860, the city leaders created Blue Mont Central College, and over the following three years the Manhattan delegation worked to pass legislation recognizing Blue Mont Central College as the state university.

On July 2, 1862, the United States Congress passed the Morrill Act. The Morrill Act awarded public lands to the states for the purpose of creating colleges.

The purpose of the land-grant colleges was:

“without excluding other scientific and classical studies and including military tactic, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, in such manner as the legislatures of the States may respectively prescribe, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life”

Kansas was the first state in the Union to accept the provisions of the federal act in February 3, 1863.

The Kansas Legislature unanimously passed the act creating Kansas State Agricultural College on February 16, 1863 and the act was effective on February 19, 1863. Kansas State Agricultural College, now Kansas State University was the first state-supported institution of higher learning in Kansas. Kansas State University is also the first operational Land Grant University in the country.

The current home of the campus where we know it today was established in 1875. The campus is comprised of 623 acres and 261 buildings. The university also has campuses in Salina and Olathe.

Today, 150 years on Saturday --Kansas State University is a vibrant university, home to thousands of students, hundreds of thousands of alumni, and countless friends and supporters around the world. Kansas State University is a distinguished institution and all of us are extremely proud of this institution after 150 celebrated years.

Remarks by Rep. Carlin:

K-State is celebrating 150 years of educational excellence provided to the state of Kansas. This university, my alma mater, was founded as an agricultural school to provide education to farm families and the working class; but as the world has changed, so has Kansas State. It has grown and adapted to meet the needs of the people of Kansas.

In the alumni news, you will see the recognitions and awards in the realm of education. Our eminent scholars rank very high in the world. K-State was found to be worthy of the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility. We are also building a new Equine Arena and a Feed Mill for enhancing the equine curriculum. K-State excels in many areas, including Engineering Architecture and Veterinary Medicine, Journalism, Home Economics, Research and Extension. K-State is tops in football, basketball and we have a recent Olympic silver medalist.

One of the things that is so special about KSU is how well it is integrated into the city of Manhattan, Kansas, even before we annexed in 1994. The university is the Heart of our community. That is why Manhattan is so interested in celebrating 150 years with us at KSU.

- Students have all prescribed research; some will present this coming week here at the Capitol
- Many participate in FHSU's marching band, chorale groups, drama, the student government association, hall council and civic and service opportunities
- Students are involved in clubs and organizations and hold officer positions

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: HB 2114 increases court revenue by passing on the cost of debt collection to the debtor. This burden has historically been part an administrative cost accepted by collectors. Setting precedent with this change creates significant unjustified revenue to the agency without budget committee oversight and adds to the burden of debtors. This action grows the government and shifts burden to the people. It adds to the penalties and interest already owed by debtors as if it is part of a just penalty. The legislature is supposed to determine penalties and approve budgets. This bill bypasses our oversight and approval. I vote No on HB 2114. -- JIM HOWELL

MR. SPEAKER: I've been troubled by HB 2114 since I first heard about it. As one who has needed and continues to need mercy and grace, I can NOT in good conscience support HB2114. This bill shifts the costs of debt collection from the government to the debtor. The legislature is charged with balancing the power of government to both protect and to punish. We represent the people. This bill grows government and increases its power to "wield the sword." I cannot support HB 2114, especially knowing that costs charged are in excess of the true costs associated with collection. I vote NO on HB 2114. -- PETE DEGRAAF, JOE EDWARDS, HAROLD LANE

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes on HB 2114. The bill allows more support or restitution to go to a party who is owed that money in a court case following a set off. The person owing the restitution or support is then charged the current fee for collection (now 17%) on top of the money owed. Currently the restitution or child support is reduced by the collection fee. – Janice L. Pauls, Keith Esau

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Rubin in the chair.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

On motion of Rep. Rubin, Committee of the Whole report, as follows, was adopted:

(c) If a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (b) is not enacted, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after rejection of the bill by either chamber of the legislature or veto of the bill by the governor, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. If the Kansas supreme court enters a judgment that a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (b) is invalid, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after entry of such judgment, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. Introduction of a bill pursuant to this section shall be in the same chamber as introduction of the original bill pursuant to subsection (a). The Kansas supreme court, in accordance with its rules, shall permit interested persons to present their views. Within 30 days after the filing of such petition, the Kansas supreme court shall enter its judgment. "§ 7. Implementing legislation. The legislature may enact legislation, not in conflict with the provisions of this article, as reasonably necessary to implement such provisions."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. Current article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas governs reapportionment of state legislative districts. It provides for reapportionment by the legislature and requires it be based on the most recent census taken by the United States bureau of the census, adjusted to exclude certain military personnel and certain students residing at colleges and universities. The revision of article 10 would govern reapportionment of the United States congressional districts, state legislative districts and the state board of education member districts. Under the revision a redistricting commission would be established to recommend redistricting plans to the legislature. The legislature would enact a plan which would be subject to review by the Kansas supreme court. There would be strict deadlines for legislative action and if no plan is adopted by the deadline, the Kansas supreme court would reapportion the districts. Reapportionment of state legislative districts would be based on the most recent census taken by the United States bureau of the census, adjusted to exclude certain military personnel and certain students residing at colleges and universities.

"A vote for this proposition would change the procedure for reapportionment of United States congressional, state legislative and state board of education member districts.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the current procedures and basis for reapportionment."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2014 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.
