Invocation by Father Don Davidson:

We have come once again O Lord to the end of the work week when many will raise their voices unto you with great thanksgiving. We humans love weekends when we have time to be with loved ones, and get things finished from weekends before. Today Lord, we give thanks that while we need time off to rest and charge our internal batteries you do not. We thank you that no matter where we may be or when, we can call upon you and you will hear our prayers. No matter the language or the words, you know the song of our hearts and give us peace, your peace. We thank you Lord for giving us the minds and hearts to receive your precious gift. Amen
